

GLEN LESLIE CHURCH SERVICE
Bezanson Homecoming Celebration
August 2, 2017

A lovely service was facilitated by Reverend Malcolm at the Glen Leslie Church on Sunday August 27, 2017. The service was one of the events of the “Celebrate Bezanson Homecoming Weekend”. Reverend Malcolm is with the Forbes Presbyterian Church in Grande Prairie and had commented that he welcomed the opportunity to provide a service at Glen Leslie. Several members of his congregation from the Forbes Presbyterian Church were in attendance.

Reverend Malcolm provided booklets for everyone on the details of the service which included the words of the songs. Ruth Boyd led the singing of “All Things Bright and Beautiful, What a Friend We Have in Jesus and How Great Thou Art”.

Once the service was complete, Carol Rigler (left) was convinced to play the organ. Although the organ was more than likely, obtained in January 1928 as inscribed on the back panel, it sounded like new as Carol Rigler played a tune. It was a wonderful morning, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Church had been decorated with several bouquets of home-grown flowers provided by Evelyn Ingraham and Wanda Zenner. The star attraction though was Mrs. Ingram's rustic cream-can filled with chokecherry branches that were loaded with berries. Several comments were made as to how spectacular the Church looked now that it was restored.
