

Glen Leslie News

It has been an interesting start of the 2025 year as 2024 Christmas cards are still rolling in. However, it was a lovely surprise to see that the “Warkentin Family” had used the Glen Leslie Church as the backdrop for their 2024 Christmas card.

Not only that but the photographer was a local business

Perhaps the last time Chris was at the Glen Leslie Church was for the highly anticipated Centennial Celebration. At that time, not only did Chris speak on the milestone that the Church had reached by being restored but that it also received its designation as a Provincial Historic Site. Chris was then put to work participating in a log-sawing challenge only using tools from long ago.

Written by Wanda Zenner January 2025